Namo namo Durge sukh karani
Namo namo Ambe dukh harani

*Chant the name of Goddess Durga, the bestower of happiness
Chant the name of Goddess Ambe, who ends all miseries.*

It is a great pleasure to welcome you all to our thirty-fifth Durga Puja celebrations in Glasgow.

In 1981, a small group from our community had a vision to celebrate Durga Puja in Glasgow in order to keep our customs and traditions alive, particularly with the younger generation and also to share our beliefs with other communities in multi-cultural Scotland. Our enthusiasm, emotion and pride that marked those very first celebrations continue to grow stronger with every year's festivities. More and more people from all over Scotland are joining us to make these celebrations a success.

Durga Puja is celebrated with fanfare on all five days of the festival and recalls the power of the female Shakti symbolised by the Goddess Durga who slays Asura to re-establish peace and sanctity on earth again.

Durga Puja symbolising victory of good over evil is an experience evoking a wide range of thoughts and emotions. It offers the chance for personal prayer, meditation and reflection and the offering of bhog and sindur to Ma Durga. Bengalis all over the world rejoice to their heart's content with friends and relatives.

Our deep rooted belief is that religions can work together for a better world. Through our faith and celebrations, we endeavour to create a caring, compassionate community that engages and embraces people of all cultural, ethnic and spiritual backgrounds. It also builds social cohesion that promotes affirmation and respect of diversity, and celebration of the rich heritage of humanity.

A special mention should go to Sarajit and Anjana Sen who, as in previous years, have been very generous and have donated the puja invitation cards. Thanks to Sanjukta Brahma for personally bringing these cards from Kolkata.

Our thanks go to Dilip Mukherjee who has been priest for the Durga and Laxmi Puja for the past three years. This year, our thanks go to Prabhakara Bhatt, Arunava Banerjee and Babulayeb Mukhopadhyay who have kindly taken on this mantle.

Thanks also go to the Police Service of Scotland and Glasgow Life for their continuous help and support. Our thanks also go to Glasgow City Council for their help in providing a safe place to store our images.

I am very grateful to all our advertisers and patrons who have generously contributed financially. My sincere thanks and gratitude go to the Durga Puja Committee for volunteering their time, and for their hard work and commitment in serving our community. My thanks go to all the children and parents who have helped to make the Puja enjoyable and successful.

I hope you enjoy this year's Puja and thank you for your continuous support.

The Rt Hon The Lord Provost of Glasgow
Councillor Sadie Docherty

I am once again delighted to send my best wishes to everyone celebrating Durga Puja here in Glasgow.

This famous festival worships the Goddess Durga's victory over the evil buffalo demon Mahishasura and, I believe, is the biggest celebration of its kind.

Our Hindu community makes a huge contribution to our city and beyond and, as First Citizen, I'm honoured to be given this opportunity to wish you all a wonderful five days of festivities.

Glasgow as a diverse and tolerant city embraces its multi-culturalism and the colour, excitement and vibrancy events like this generate.

This celebration of the Mother Goddess is a familiar tale of good triumphing over evil. That is a universal message that all right thinking people celebrate. However, Durga Puja is also a deeply religious occasion allowing Hindus to contemplate their faith.

I wish you all a joyous and uplifting Durga Puja.

Mahalaya

The traditional six day countdown to Mahasaptami starts from Mahalaya. Goddess Durga visits the earth for only four days but seven days prior to the Pujas, starts the Mahalaya. The enchanting chant of 'chandi path' fill up the predawn hours of the day thus marking the beginning of "devipaksha" and the countdown of Durga Puja. It's a kind of invocation or invitation to the mother goddess to descend on earth - "Jago Tumi Jago". This is done through chanting of mantras and singing devotional songs.

The story element is captivating. It speaks of the increasing cruelty of the demon king Mahisasura against the gods. Unable to tolerate his tyranny the gods plead with Vishnu to annihilate the demon. The Trinity of Brahma, Vishnu and Maheswara (Shiva) come together to create a powerful female form with ten arms - Goddess Durga or 'Mahamaya', the Mother of the Universe who embodies the primeval source of all power.

The gods then bestow upon this Supreme creation their individual blessings and weapons. Armed like a warrior, the goddess rides a lion to battle with Mahisasura. After a fierce combat the 'Durgatinashini' is able to slay the 'Asura' king with her trident. Heaven and earth rejoice at her victory. Finally, the mantra narration ends with the refrain of mankind's supplication before this Supreme Power:

"Ya devi sarbabhuteshshu, sakti rupena sanksthita Namasteshwai Namasteshwai Namasteshwai namo namaha."

This day bears immense significance for the Bengalis. It is according to the myths that Sree Rama hastily performed Durga Puja just before he set for Lanka to rescue Sita from Ravana. According to Puranas, King Suratha, used to worship the goddess Durga in spring. Thus Durga Puja was also known as Basanti Puja. But Rama brought the Puja forward and worshiped Durga in autumn and that is why it is known as 'Akal Bodhon' or untimely worship. It was considered untimely as it is in the myths that puja was performed when the Gods and Goddesses were awake i.e. "Uttarayan" and was not held when the Gods and Goddesses rested i.e. "Dakshinayan". It was on the day of Mahalaya, the beginning of "devipoksha", the Gods and Goddesses woke up to prepare themselves for Durga Puja.

Autumn in its bloom, mingled with the festive spirit of Durga Puja reaches its pitch on the day of Mahalaya. From this day starts 'Devipaksha' and marks the end of 'Pitri-paksha'. It is the day when many throng to the banks of river Ganga, clad in dhotis to offer prayers to their dead relatives and forefathers. People in the pre-dawn hours pray for their demised relatives and take holy dips in the Ganges. This ritual is known as 'Tarpon'.
